Engravers May End Newspaper Strike Soon

NEW YORK (AP) — Striking photoengravers weighed proposed contract terms today amid indications the 109-day shutdown of eight New York newspapers would continue at least until Thursday.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner in a role of umpire offered a proposal accepted by publishers negotiating with the photoengravers. It was essentially the same as the one accepted Sunday by printers, who initiated the shutdown by striking Dec. 8.

Leaders of the photoengravers put off an immediate decision on acceptance pending a meeting among themselves this afternoon. Even should they accept, they said, a ratification meeting by the membership would not be held until Wednesday.

The photoengravers have been insisting on a reduction in the 36½ work week to 35 hours.

Under Wagner's proposal, as in the case of the printers, they would get a 35-hour week, but not until the second year of a two-year contract.

Four unions joined in the strike. Besides the printers, striking mailers and stereotypers have agreed to terms, leaving the photoengravers as the last to act on the mayor's proposal.

And there was an optimistic prediction today from the leader of striking printers in Cleveland, Ohio, that the two dailies which have been closed these eight days longer than the ones in New York "possibly" will resume publication early next week.

Wagner, who made his announcement at 4 a.m. after negotiations through the night, set no deadline for the union to accept or reject his recommendations.

But he stated flatly he saw "no purpose in further negotiations" between both sides.

Other than the photoengravers and two non-striking unions which will negotiate new pacts after publication is resumed, the

Bidault Enters Portugal to Fight DeGaulle

LISBON (AP) — Former French Premier Georges Bidault flew to Portugal early today after West Germany refused to let him continue his campaign to overthrow President Charles de Gaulle, police reported.

He faces a similar ban should he try to stay in Portugal. Bavarian Interior Minister Heinrich Junker said Bidault left voluntarily. He is an aide, Guy Ribaudeau, to the Swiss airline to Zurich or James of "Aubergier" and "Offrey," then boarded a Dutch airliner for Lisbon.

A police spokesman at the Lisbon airport said: "Two men with these names arrived shortly after midnight, but we did not realize they were Bidault and his secretary."

Their arrival touched off a nationwide search by officials. Before leaving Germany, Bidault vowed to continue his campaign for the downfall of De Gaulle.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said that "as far as we know Bidault is still in Germany."

Couple Survives 7 Weeks in Frozen Yukon Without Food, Able to Tell Experiences

WHITEHORSE, Yukon Territory (AP) — A California pilot and an undaunted Brooklyn coed felt their strength flowing back today in a Whitehorse hospital after a seven-week ordeal of hunger and cold in the subzero Canadian north.

They said faith in God brought them through after their plane crashed Feb. 4.

Helen Klaben, 21, and Ralph Flores, 42, a father of six from San Bruno, Calif., said they survived on melted snow for the last six weeks.

"It was water for breakfast, water for lunch and water for dinner," said Miss Klaben, managing to smile for her rescuers although she had a broken, gangrenous right foot and a broken left arm and was gaunt from hunger.

She lost 30 pounds—the heavily bearded Flores lost 40—but Miss Klaben quipped: "That was one good thing about the experience. I used to be 'pleasingly plump.'"

Flores, a pilot and electrician, also is a Mormon lay preacher. "His faith set the example for me to follow all my life," said Miss Klaben.

"I am starting my adulthood with full knowledge of what I have to do. I wasn't rescued until I understood, until I realized my sins and decided to make recompense for them."

"It was Ralph's Bible. I read both the Old and New Testaments. I know what I have to do, what my work is, what faith is, faith in God."

Miss Klaben said she never lost hope, but was puzzled "why the Lord was keeping us so long."

Then, she told reporters, she realized "Ralph and I both needed time to think over our lives."

During the terrifying weeks in the wilderness, Miss Klaben said she longed for her mother, Ida Klaben of Brooklyn, more than anything or anyone else.

Her first act after arriving at the hospital here—where Dr. Nestor James reported she and Flores were "doing as well as can be expected"—was to telephone home.

In Brooklyn, Mrs. Klaben sobbed: "I'm so wrought up I don't know what to do. The poor child, she's really suffering. I'd like to go to her. She's such a wonderful, wonderful girl."

Flores, who suffered a broken rib and frozen toes, also telephoned home when he got to the hospital.

"We were so happy and emotional we couldn't tell each other much," said his wife, Theresa. "He had tears in his eyes, I am sure, and I was the same way too."

Sheryl Flores, 14, talked to her father. Tears streaming down her face, she kept repeating: "When are you coming home?"

Flores told reporters he expects to be released from the hospital in about five days.

He said his light plane was blown off course in a snowstorm and crashed on a heavily timbered mountain as he and Miss Klaben flew from Fairbanks, Alaska, to

Cutbacks in State Police Services Made

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Police Director Herman Lindsey said Monday that wholesale curtailment of State Police services already has affected 17 Arkansas cities.

And Gov. Orval E. Faubus said the economy measures will hurt local law enforcement officers who call on the State Police for assistance.

Lindsey said nine cities which previously had two patrol cars in their area will have only one in the cutbacks. These cities, he said, are Jonesboro, Russellville, Conway, Fayetteville, Harrison, Newport, Forrest City, Morrilton and Searcy.

He said eight cities which previously had one car rotated between two troopers, each working a 10-hour shift daily, now will have both troopers working together in a single 10-hour shift. Cities hit by this change include Texarkana, Blytheville, Pine Bluff, Fort Smith, El Dorado, Van Buren, Ozark and Walnut Ridge, he said.

The program of cutbacks was drawn up by Lindsey. They confine the State Police to traffic control, investigation of major crimes and assistance in disasters.

"I don't think these will be sufficient," Lindsey said of the service reductions. "I think we'll have to reduce even further."

Under the program announced by Faubus, no vacancies will be filled, no officers will be promoted, and the Criminal Investigations Division will be held to essentials. Members of the CID are being placed on regular patrol duty, Lindsey said.

Faubus announced the cut in services earlier Monday. It came after a bill to increase the state driver's license fee from $2 to $3 failed in the 1963 Arkansas Legislature.

The governor said the increase would have meant an additional $900,000 a year for the agency. Faubus said the State Police has been exceeding its budget by about $400,000 annually the last few years. He said Monday that he wouldn't want to take any funds from general of highway revenues.

Faubus said he was not planning to call a special session of the legislature, although he had said earlier that one might become necessary. If so, he said, it probably would come in July.

Cooler Air Moves Into Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cooler air began to flow into Arkansas early today and by tonight was expected to cause temperatures to dip into the low 30s in the northern part of the state and high 30s to low 40s in the southern portion.

Monday's threat of thunderstorms and tornadoes in northeast Arkansas passed with no reports of severe weather. Maximum rainfall in the state Monday was .53 of an inch at Walnut Ridge.

Only two other Weather Bureau stations reported rain. El Dorado had .40 and the Memphis-West Memphis area had .15.

A high pressure area following the cold front is expected to keep Arkansas weather fair through Thursday.

Rules Both Parties Not to Blame

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett ruled today that the Highway Department cannot make payments jointly to a contractor and the contractor's creditor or assignee.

In connection with the ruling, Bennett advised J. E. McCarthy, chief of the Highway Department's Accounting Division, that the Highway Department is not bound by law to honor an assignment by a contractor.

Bennett said he understood the Highway Department had been making joint payments. He advised McCarthy, "I could envision a situation whereby a subsequent default by the contractor would result in litigations involving the Highway Department."

In other opinions, the attorney general's office held:

That the 1962 poll tax receipts will be used to vote in this year's school elections which fall on the last Tuesday in September.

That a justice of the peace can also serve on a school board.

That a firemen's pension board cannot waive pension payments and that a man who is eligible for retirement after 20 years service must continue to make pension payments as long as he holds the job.

Lions Club to Hold Annual Broom Sale

In connection with clean up, paint up, and beautify month the Hope Lions Club will have their annual broom sale Monday April 1st, from 5:00 to 9:00 p.m. Both brooms and mops will be offered.

Arkla Shows Hike in Revenue

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. said in its annual stockholders report Monday that gross sales and operating revenues increased 5.8 per cent last year to $135,472,751.

The 1961 total for Arkla and its six subsidiaries was $128,058,407. The report said the company gained 9,548 new customers in 1962, pushing the total served to 490,883 in 401 communities.

Consolidated net income applicable to common stock amounted to $1.73 a share on 10,598,729 outstanding shares, compared to $1.76 on 10,351,307 shares outstanding at the end of 1961.

Arkla also announced Monday that it had filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington in connection with the proposed issuance of $45 million in new first mortgage bonds.

Proceeds from the bonds will be used to retire loans, make investments and advances, and partially finance a construction and drilling program.

Plans Ready for Cleanup Campaign

The Hope Chamber of Commerce hopes that during six weeks of clean up, paint up, and beautify month, all civic minded citizens of Hope and Hempstead County will be scrubbing, painting, repairing, and remove health and fire hazards.

Bill Gunter and T. C. Cranford are co-chairmen of the Chamber Project. The campaign will be launched with church cooperation day, Sunday March 31st. All ministers of Hope have been provided sermon outlines suggesting cleanliness is next to Godliness, urging church members to spearhead the campaign to make our community more attractive. Any minister who has not obtained a copy may do so at the chamber office.

The Hope Band Boosters will pick up scrap paper from 2:30 to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, March 31st. So you are urged to start your clean up campaign by tying your newspaper and magazines in bundles and place them on the curb. This can be a good beginning to your own clean up project by removing these items from your premises and at the same time help the band boosters.

Contract Hearing Is Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators postponed to Wednesday resumption of the TFX warplane contract inquiry which Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says can produce "only harm."

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., announced the delay shortly before his subcommittee had planned to question a group of high-ranking Air Force and Navy officers about the controversial contract award. He said he had other pressing engagements and the subcommittee's staff had informed him it could use one additional day of preparation for the hearings. He said today's resumption never had been more than a tentative date.

The subcommittee released a transcript of testimony in which McNamara had told its members Thursday:

"There is a lot of harm that can accrue from this investigation. I cannot see any good that will accrue from it. I can see only harm."

Local Women Hear Nat'l President

Mrs. Joe Jones, Department Vice-president of the Western Division of the American Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. E. F. Formby, National Security Chairman, attended the Rehabilitation Conference held at the North Little Rock Veterans Hospital last week, where they heard an assessment of the work of the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary from the National President, Mrs. Ollie L. Koger of Topeka, Kan.

Mrs. Koger stressed the Legion's Youth Programs, which she said were aimed at instilling love of God and country in the young. She said that millions of young people had benefited from the Legion Junior Baseball Program, Girls and Boys State, the annual National High School Oratorical Contest, and the National President Scholarships.

"Aids from their youth work, the Legion and the Auxiliary have been largely responsible for making the disabled American war veteran the best cared for in the world," she said.

Criminality Among Kids on Increase

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

STRASBOURG, France (AP)—"Shall we go to the movies tonight or attack a woman?"

This cruel jest, circulating in a West Berlin high school, reflects an increase of youthful criminality and brutality in Western Europe. The Council of Europe asked 12 of its member countries about juvenile delinquency. All reported rapes, murders, stabbings, auto stealing, theft and wanton destruction by minors.

The report said 94 out of every 100 boys and girls never get into any trouble with the law, and held that "on the whole youth does well in these difficult times."

What alarmed the investigators was the recent tendency for large groups of young people suddenly to go wild.

West Berlin police have investigated over 30 mass rapes by bands of young hooligans in just over a year.

Five years ago such attacks were unknown in Berlin. The new-style prowling gangs seize women or young girls, often minors. A gang of 19 youths mishandled a 15-year-old girl for two hours before releasing her.

The head of the Berlin vice squad, Horst Schramm, said: "These criminals are not hard up for sex. Without exception they have girl friends who are not in the least prudish. They simply delight in the use of force."

Delinquency is less prevalent in the underdeveloped areas, such as the south of Italy and rural Spain. Youths get out of line less often where family ties are strongest, in primitive villages where the clan spirit prevails.

Delinquency happens most in Europe's highly industrialized areas—the glittering neon world of coffee bars, juke boxes, and automobiles. Most of the affected youngsters earn easy money in simple jobs in the busy factories of the industrial regions.

Homes broken by divorce, the late return of fathers from prison camps, the emancipation of European women and consequent downgrading of father's authority, are some of the factors cited as causing delinquency.

The idea that the youth crime wave reflects World War II is undermined, however, by the fact that neutral countries such as Sweden have the same youth troubles as Germany and France.

The picture being given by European investigators is of young people who are economically affluent but culturally impoverished.

Unable to bridge the gulf between themselves and their elders, they band together, dress alike, haunt the same places.

FBI Takes Accused Bank Robber

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Jerry C. Rush, 27-year-old accused bank robber and prison escapee, was surprised by FBI agents today and arrested before he could pull either of two loaded pistols hidden in his car.

The FBI said he bought the red upholstered, air conditioned black auto and financed a honeymoon with his striptease bride with loot from last November's $102,176 robbery of a New Jersey bank.

In New York, the FBI said his wife, Catherine 26, was arrested simultaneously, in Mamaroneck, N.Y. She had been sought in connection with the bank robbery.

"I knew the FBI would find me, but I didn't think you guys would do it so soon," agents quoted Rush as saying as he was taken into custody. He was among the FBI's 10 most wanted fugitives.

Agents swarmed around Rush as he sat down behind the wheel of the car after leaving a plush Bay Harbor Islands apartment

In the car were a P33 German Luger and a .32 caliber revolver, both loaded, and additional ammunition for the weapons.

Rush was questioned at the Miami FBI office, then taken to Dade County Jail until his arraignment.

He faced warrants charging him with armed robbery, assault with intent to murder and unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Rush and two other men are charged with robbing the Convery branch of the Perth Amboy, N.J., National Bank of $102,176 last Nov. 16.

His two accomplices were captured less than two weeks later in Las Vegas, Nev.

At the time of the New Jersey bank robbery, Rush was a fugitive from the Maryland State

Germany to Continue Market Try

WASHINGTON (AP) — West Germany will continue its efforts to bring Britain into the Common Market, former Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano pledged today.

"We feel that the content and spirit of the Rome treaties obligate us to do this," Brentano said in a speech prepared for a National Press Club luncheon.

Moreover, he added, "We feel that there can be no pause in the process of European unification. Setbacks have not caused us to quit; they have simply strengthened our political will."

Brentano said he had found some concern here over the recently concluded German-French pact, "concern which I sincerely regret."

Having talked with U.S. legislators and officials of the administration, Brentano said, he now feels "I have been successful to a large extent in dispelling these concerns."

The German-French pact is solely aimed at creating "genuine and lasting friendship in place of tension and national rivalries," Brentano said.

After a White House visit earlier in the day, Brentano said he had told President Kennedy he was gratified that the President is planning to visit Berlin.

Kennedy and Brentano also discussed problems of the Atlantic Alliance, including the setting up of a multinational atomic force for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Seattle, Wash. Miss Klaben flew with Flores "because it was only $75 for the trip and it's $150 on a commercial airliner," her brother, Edward, said in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Miss Klaben was finishing a five-month stint as a draftsman with the U.S. Bureau of Land Management.

She said she was heading for California en route to Hong Kong on the first leg of a round-the-world tour. First reports said she was on the way back to New York to continue engineering studies.

Flores, an electrician on the U.S. Dewline (distant early warning) radar network, had completed his contract and was flying home in his $7,000 private plane.

Telling of the crash from his hospital bed, he said he was planning to stop at Fort St. John, in northern British Columbia, but got lost in snow clouds.

"I was trying to use the last drop of gas in my tank because I was going to use more time to get to my destination. When I saw where I was, it was too late."

"I was checking the radio range, looking for the beam and watching the mountain when the center tank ran out of gas. Just as I reached over to switch on the front tank, the wing tip caught the trees."

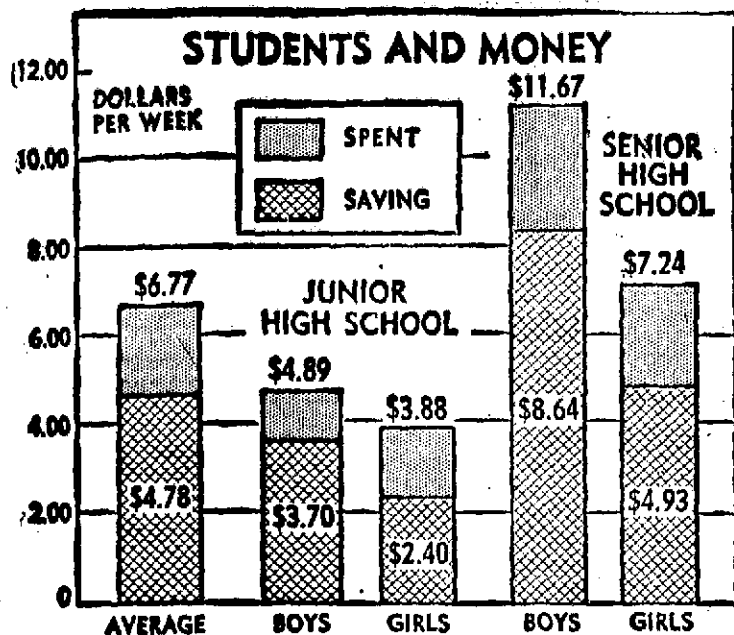

"We just went inside the trees," Flores said the two were unconscious for 30 minutes to an hour. He suffered rib, jaw, eye and face injuries. When he recovered consciousness, his feet were partially frozen. That, he said, was why he did not move away from the wreckage until about two weeks ago. Miss Klaben also was almost immobile.

Doctors said the forced inactivity probably was one reason the two were able to survive without food. But they said the pair had just about reached the end of their strength and they doubted that either could have lasted another week.

The pair had two cans of fruit and two of sardines which they managed to eke out for a week. Then they ate two tubes of toothpaste. After that, they said, it was melted snow.

Miss Klaben said she noticed the cold only for the first two weeks but "the nights were bad."

Flores, less seriously injured, left the plane two weeks ago and built a brush-lined shelter from Hamilton flew back Monday morning to pick up the girl. The closest he could get his ski-equipped plane to her was three miles.

Picking her up, Hamilton carried Miss Klaben piggyback the three miles to his plane, falling several times because of soft snow.

"I knew she was in pain, but she didn't cry out," he said. "If it had been me, I don't think I'd come out of it even though I am experienced at this game."

"Oh God, I'm alive and the world's my home," cried Miss Klaben when she reached the rescue center.

"She wanted to see things," said her mother in Brooklyn. "To see something of life and the world before settling down. And she managed to do it."

36 days that proved Ford's total performance!

RIVERSIDE, CAL. January 20

In a total performance test of brakes, suspension and steering on the twisting Riverside sports car course, Dan Gurney drove a Ford hardtop to victory over 43 other stock cars. The 300-mile grand demonstrated Ford's superior stamina and road-holding.

MONTE CARLO January 23

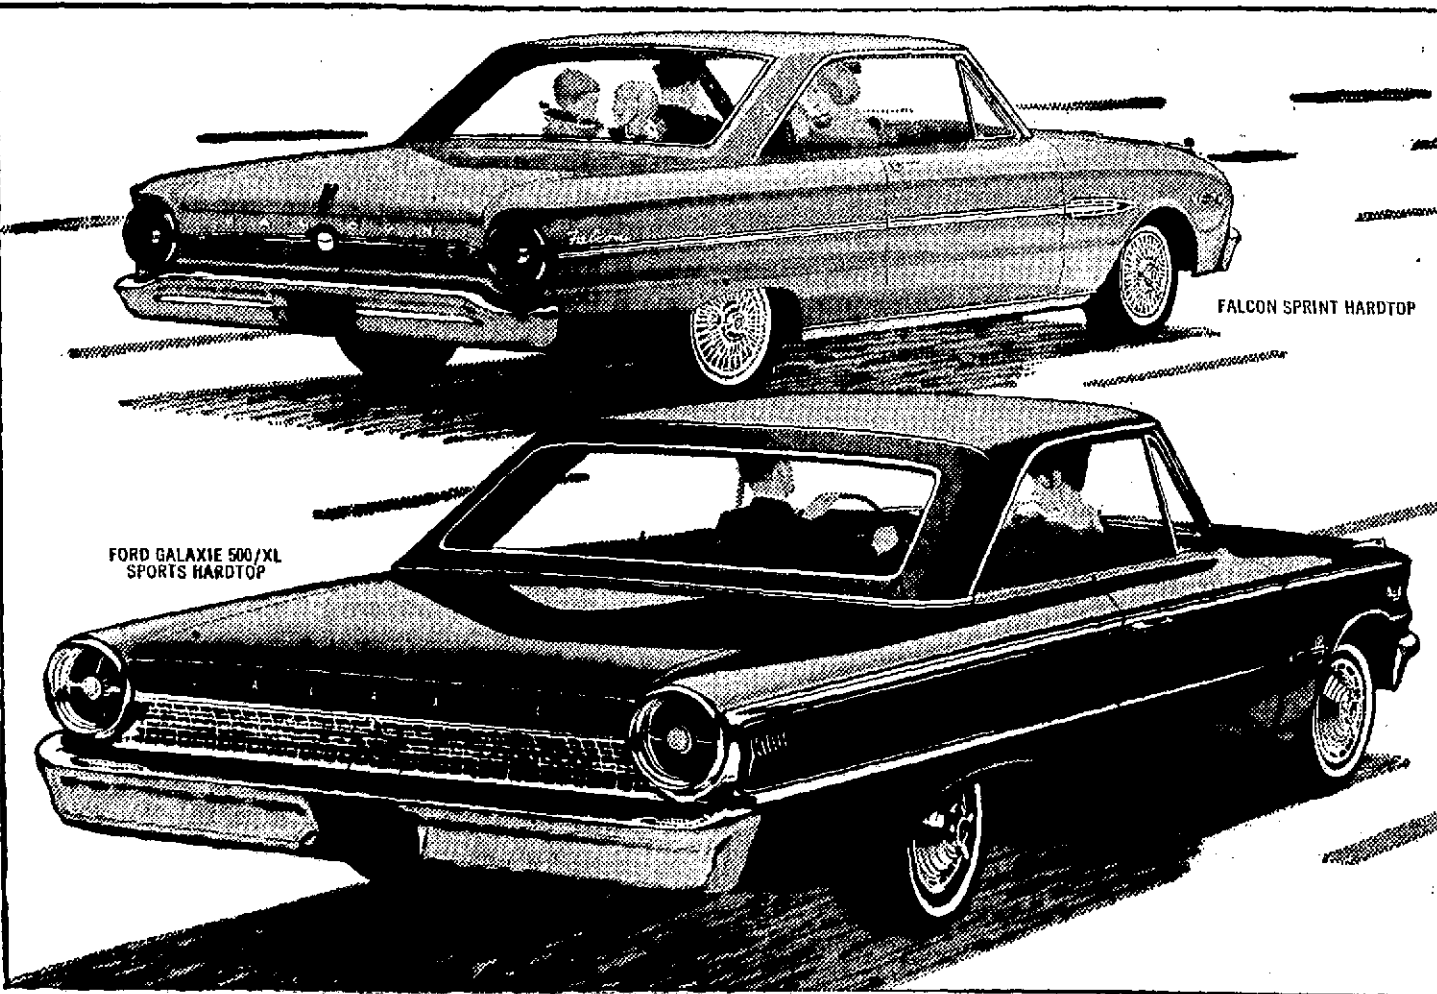

The '63 1/2 Falcon V-8 Sprints made their debut with a fantastic showing in the 2,500-mile Monte Carlo Rally. Through Europe's worst winter weather they placed 1st and 2nd in class. Besides this... one Sprint defeated every entrant in the Rally's six special stages.

PURE OIL TRIALS January 27

In a competition designed to test all-around performance, Fords were overall winners in Class I and Class II in the Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona. Their total performance design added up to most total points in gas economy, acceleration and braking events.

DAYTONA, FLA. February 24

Daytona "500" history was made when '63 1/2 Fords blazed into the first five places! Since Daytona is the toughest track in the world, this was eyewitness proof that Ford's total performance design can endure the maximum in automotive punishment.

...and here are the 63 1/2's that gave total proof of Ford's durability and handling!

You may never see a competitive auto event. But at 30 mph on rain-slick blacktop, in the close-packed rush of 5 o'clock traffic, on a twisting mountain road, the results are important to you. On every slippery surface you need the kind of roadability that placed five Fords out front in the Daytona "500." On every busy cross street—you want the brakes that won on Riverside's sports car circuit. Your engine will hold up better through years of turnpike use because it's as beautifully balanced as Falcon's Monte Carlo V-8's. The winning competition car is bound to be a great road car—and Ford is the big winner!

If it's Ford-built, it's built for performance... total performance!

BILL RALEY

Somewhere along the line we came across a bit of advice to women on how to be charming. It is good and sound and we would like to pass it along. We quote: "A woman should endeavor to be happy, because if you are unhappy you are plain and if you are plain you are bitter. A bitter person is always disagreeable and when one is disagreeable one is no longer attractive, charming or loved by anyone."

Of course now, we do not pretend to know all the answers on this business of keeping happy, but we do know one... personal appearance, a change of hair-do, a different lipstick, a manicure will do wonders. But there is nothing like a new dress to give you a brand new lease on life!

There are so many styles we cannot describe them all, we invite you to see for yourself.

We have new hats, gloves, hose, lingerie and jewelry to accessorize any costume you select.

So far that brand new lease on life — Shop Raley's Style Shoppe, Hope's House of Fashion.

Highlights in Today's History

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1913, Ohio and Indiana were devastated by floods which took more than 3,000 lives and caused property damage in excess of $50 million. As a result of the disaster, large detention reservoirs were built on tributaries of the Miami River running through Ohio. Similar flood prevention measures elsewhere in the nation ultimately aided in saving lives and property.

In 1794, Congress passed the first U.S. Embargo Act.

In 1804, the Louisiana Purchase was divided into the Territory of Orleans and the District of Louisiana.

In 1941, Belgrade, Yugoslavia was the scene of demonstrations against the Axis powers during World War II.

DOROTHY DIX

FRIGHTENED LITTLE GIRL

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: This is the story of a 15-year-old boy and girl. I am the girl, a soph in a large regional high school; get honor marks, am unassuming and undemanding (like to go my way and watch others go theirs). This includes my parents with whom, to tell the truth, I don't want to be bothered with.

The boy, whom I shall call Doug, likes to fool around, listen to crazy records, make passes at girls, smoke and sometimes drink. He, too, gets honor roll marks; does very well in math and science. I do my best in biology.

We started having an affair last summer, have seen each other twice a week regularly and every day at school. I don't love him nor he me, but we've had fun and the experience has been a source of inspiration. We do not want to marry; we're too immature for that and we're not ashamed of anything we have done, but the time has come when I must tell my parents. How, is the question.

Probable reactions as follows: Father, "Get out, you slut!" (and other less complimentary names); or perhaps he will confine himself to merely beating me. As for my mother, she will either uphold father, or me, depending upon how fresh the memories of her early life are.

And Doug's mother? (His father died a few years ago. This "romance" will get us both kicked out of school and she won't like that. She wants him to go on to college. Too, Doug was born of a "romance" similar to ours and she won't enjoy being reminded of this, even obliquely.

I'm waiting to see what help pops up. I plan to tell my mother myself—from a sadistic point of view, I admit. Any suggestions?

"Laughing"

Dear Laughing: You are a child whistling in the dark to keep up your courage, knowing in your heart of hearts that the road you are taking leads only to self-destruction. I'm certainly no prude and the last person to preach hell-fire and damnation but one thing is for sure; you can do anything you want in this world except fix the punishment for it. The night courts are crowded with hard-faced, diseased and broken women who were once as devil-may-care, pseudo-cynical and brash as you are now.

The one thing in your favor is that you wrote me. And I print the letter not only to help you but because I receive so many others in similar vein from teens who seem to be amoral, rather than immoral and as devoid of feeling and responsibility as zombies.

Who is at fault—their parents, teachers, or the ancestors from whom they stem? From what you say, your parents and also your boy friend's mother have been lacking in both affection and discipline. But that's your side of the story. I wonder what theirs would be?

If, as you prophesy, you both will be thrown out of school, then your teachers must be wanting in compassion and understanding. Again, I should like to hear their version.

In the last analysis, if you have the determination, you can insure this disgraceful situation. Have the courage to face the facts. Your immediate problem is not how to break the news of your

Times and Expenses Changed

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — In 1914, when Carl Vinson, a 31-year-old Democrat from Georgia, came to Congress for the first time, his entire staff was made up of one secretary, paid $125 a month. The law allowed him and all other congressmen no more.

Today Vinson has four members on his staff. The average representative is allowed to hire up to nine at an over-all cost of $4,000 a month. The average senator usually hires more. And so may the congressional committees.

In a rush to keep pace with the onslaught of modern pressures, Congress has created its own private bureaucracy that now numbers more than 7,000 people and costs more than $50 million a year.

This week the House will debate a proposal, approved by its Administration Committee, to increase the office expenses of each congressman by $10,506 a year so he can add still another employee to his payroll.

The huge bureaucracy on Capitol Hill has provoked criticism, particularly from Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., who leads a futile fight each year to wipe out a good number of the Senate's subcommittee staffs.

"Many of these subcommittees are useless," Ellender said in an interview. "All they do is create jobs, monopolize space, and glorify senators. And like old soldiers, the subcommittees never die."

Ellender pointed out that the Senate Judiciary Committee has 15 regular staff members while its 14 subcommittees have 150 staff members.

A sturdy defense of big congressional staffs comes from Dr. George B. Galloway, senior specialist in American government for the Library of Congress and former staff director of the Senate-House committee that conducted hearings on the reorganization of Congress in 1946.

"The increase in staff is one of the most favorable developments in Congress," Galloway said in an interview. "It is a third force that provides Congress with information and intelligence to counteract the interested opinions that come to Congress from interested parties on the one hand and from the executive department on the other."

In Galloway's view, the cause of most of the mushrooming is quite simple: The problems of Congress today are far different and far more complex than the problems of Congress when Carl Vinson was a freshman.

Vinson, dean of the House today with almost 50 years service, recalls that "Congress didn't have the work then that it has now." "We were concerned with just three issues: tariffs, a few agriculture bills, the prosecution of World War I," he told a newsman.

"Since then—" Vinson stopped, smiled, and with a swift rotation of his hand, acted out the acceleration of federal government brought on by the great depression, World War II, the cold war and near $100-billion budgets.

The first Congress, which met from 1789 to 1791, introduced 268 bills, enacted 108 public laws, and had 155 committee reports. The 87th Congress, which met in 1961 and 1962, introduced 17,220 bills, enacted 833 public laws, and had 4,852 committee reports.

The first Congress had only two committees. In contrast, the Senate Committee on Government Operations reported that in 1955 and 1956 the Senate alone had 17 committees and 129 subcommittees, which, with 13 joint Senate-House committees, met a total of 3,951 times for a total of 11,677 hours.

Sonic Booms Are Expected

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Strategic Air Command warned Monday that B-58 Hustler bombers on training flights will cause sonic booms April 8 through June 30 in northwest Arkansas.

The flights, from Sherman, Tex., to McAlester, Okla., to Farmington, Mo., are scheduled between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m., SAC said.

The booms will be heard along a 40-mile path between Fort Smith and Fayetteville.

Weather Bureau Man to Retire

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Walter C. Hickmon, a veteran of 48 years in the United States Weather Bureau, will retire Sunday after 10 years as meteorologist in charge of the bureau here.

Raymond L. Richardson will take over Hickmon's duties until a permanent successor is appointed.

A native of Jackson County, Hickmon also lived in White and Independence counties and attended Arkansas College at Batesville.

He joined the Weather Bureau in 1915, was stationed at Key West and Sand Key, Fla., and Mobile, Ala., before transferring in 1917 to Little Rock.

He served with the American Expeditionary Forces in France during World War I, became meteorologist in charge at Fort Smith, and remained there until replacing H. S. Cole at Little Rock in 1940.

Hickmon said that despite what you may have heard, Weather Bureau forecasts are correct about 90 per cent of the time.

Bayou Dragged for Child's Body

DES ARC, Ark. (AP) — Officers and volunteers dragged Bayou Des Arc northwest of here today for the body of James Ashley Messer Jr., 2, of Des Arc, whose boat was found capsized in the bayou Sunday.

They found nothing in a search Monday. Messer, supervisor of the sewing department at the Phillips-Van Heusen plant in Des Arc, rented a boat Sunday to try out a new motor.

Block Cleared in Newspaper Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — One more roadblock was cleared today toward settling this city's 108-day shutdown of eight newspapers.

Negotiators for publishers and striking drivers, one of 10 unions involved in the tangled situation, came to terms on a new contract. A membership ratification meeting is to be held Sunday.

This development came as striking printers arranged to vote again Sunday on Mayor Robert F. Wagner's settlement formula which they had rejected last Sunday.

Publishers' negotiating teams met with representatives of the paper handlers and printing pressmen's unions. These unions' contracts have expired but they are not on strike.

The publishers are scheduled to meet later today with striking photoengravers. Then will come talks with nonstriking machinists and electricians.

The machinists and electricians have said they will not block resumption of publication. They are willing to return to work and continue negotiations.

Charge Filed in Fatal Shooting

BLYTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Prosecutor A. S. Harrison filed a first degree murder charge Monday against Conway Payne, 40, of Leachville.

He is charged with the fatal shooting of Gladys Barlow Payne, 39, his former wife, and Bobby Sigall, 35, of Blytheville.

Mrs. Payne was shot once in the chest and Sigall was hit twice by bullets from a .38-caliber pistol. They were shot Saturday.

Joe Adcock May Be What Indians Need

AP Spotlight
BASEBALL ROUNDUP SPTS
By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Adcock, a slick piece of wampum in any wigwag, might be just the heap big medicine man Birdie Tebbetts wanted for his Indians.

When Tebbetts came to the Cleveland reservation last winter from Milwaukee, he talked the Braves into letting Adcock go in a trade for pitcher Frank Funk and outfielder Don Dillard. Now the Indians can count on a big gun for their attack instead of a how and arrow.

Adcock proved Monday he can supply the power that's been missing from the Cleveland attack. The 35-year-old first baseman smashed two three-run homers and singled to start another three-run uprising as the Indians whipped Houston 11-3 in an exhibition game at Tucson.

Other outstanding individual performances were turned in by Philadelphia's Paul Brown, who pitched nine innings and shut out Minnesota 2-0 on six hits at Clearwater, and Bubba Phillips, who stroked five singles in Detroit's 17-3 belting of Washington at Pompano Beach.

In a pair of extra-inning affairs, Jim Hickman's 11th-inning homer gave the surprising New York Mets a 4-3 triumph over Milwaukee at St. Petersburg and Baltimore edged Pittsburgh 5-4 at Fort Myers on Mark Belanger's bases-loaded grounder in the 10th.

Elsewhere, the New York Yankees defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-2 at Vero Beach, Boston beat San Francisco 4-2 at Scottsdale, St. Louis edged the Chicago White Sox 4-3 at Sarasota, Kansas City walloped Cincinnati 11-4 at Tampa and the Chicago Cubs downed the Los Angeles Angels 7-4 at Mesa.

In off-the-field activity, the Mets released veteran outfielder Bob Cerv, who said he would retire from the game; Cincinnati sold pitcher Johnny Klippstein to Philadelphia, and the Angels sold infielder Leo Burke to St. Louis.

Elia Furnishes Hits for Trays

DADE CITY, Fla. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers used the bat of lively little Lee Elia to whip the Chattanooga Lookouts 9-6 in an intrasquad game here Monday.

Elia homered twice to account for five Traveler tallies.

A pop fly got lost in the sun in center field and freshkily beamed John Upham. He was hit over the eye and flattened.

Traveler manager Frank Lucchesi said Upham may miss action for several days.

Arkansas led 5-1 until the sixth inning, when Chattanooga scored four to tie the score. The Trays took the lead again when Norm Gigon singled Bobby Malkus home after he had slashed a ground rule double to left field.

Another game between the Travelers and Lookouts is scheduled for today.

Damage to Fighter's Brain Heavy

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A coroner's autopsy shows that Davey Moore suffered three times the amount of brain damage originally indicated by an encephalogram after his fatal fight against Sugar Ramos.

Moore's backward plunge onto the lower strand of the ropes is believed by autopsy surgeons to have caused the massive damage that resulted in his death early Monday. The scores of jolting lefts that Ramos rained to the head and jaw of the featherweight champion Thursday night were described as contributing factors.

Coroner Theodore J. Curphey, reporting the findings of a two-hour autopsy, said there were small hemorrhages and edema of the structures of the brain stem and also "large contusions in the midline of the cerebellum—phases which were probably one of the major factors in bringing about this man's demise."

In retreating from Ramos' savage attack in the 10th round, Moore plunged backward into the ropes. The back of his neck struck the lower strand near the turnbuckle and his head snapped sharply toward his chest.

This fall, Dr. Curphey said, caused extensive brain damage, but he said blows to the jaw could have been contributing factors. A small hemorrhage was found on the right side of Moore's brain, cuts and contusions were found inside the fighter's lips, and minimum hemorrhages were on the skin of the right temple and around the joint of the right jawbone.

Ironically, a fighter may have been saved from injury Monday night because a thick foam-rubber covering on the ropes was added after Moore's death.

Pete Gonzalez of Hollywood, Calif., struck the back of his head on the lower strand in the third round after being knocked down by Wilhelm von Homburg in a fight at Hollywood's Moulin Rouge. But Gonzalez, who had been floored four times in the first two rounds, recovered shortly after the referee had counted to 10.

Dr. Curphey declined to be drawn into a discussion whether boxing should be outlawed in California. Moore lost his mouthpiece early in the fight, and although it was restored at the end of the round, Curphey said, "I think the rules should require mouthpieces be placed back at once."

He said the absence of the mouthpiece may have intensified the effects of the facial blows that caused hemorrhaging in the region of the temple.

"We have a long way to go to protect human beings in contact sports," said the coroner.

Ramos, who inflicted fatal injuries on Jose Tiger Blanco in Havana in 1958, in scoring a knockout, flew to Mexico City Monday after expressing his sorrow to Moore's widow, Geraldine. Ramos is a Cuban refugee who now makes his home in Mexico. Mrs. Moore said she did not blame Ramos. "Davey's death was an act of God," she said.

The body of the 29-year-old boxer will be flown to Columbus, Ohio, Wednesday for funeral services.

The hue and cry over Gov. Edmund G. Brown's proposal to outlaw boxing in California continued unabated on street corners, in the press and on radio and television.

"I have it," said Mark. "A Broadway show is an entirely different experience. After a short time it really can get very boring."

"They are much like any other children," remarked their mother. "Leslie collects dolls. Mark is interested in science. But I do try to keep them in bed all day Sunday so they can catch up on their rest."

The state's compulsory school attendance law was passed in 1903.

West All Star Cage Team Faces a Task

By KESLO STURGEON
Associated Press Sports Writer
LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Cliff Wells, coach of the West team in this Saturday's East-West college All-Star basketball game, knows how David felt when he went out to fight Goliath.

Wells' team faces the task of stopping the likes of All-Americans Art Heyman of Duke and Jerry Harkness of Chicago Loyola, plus such performers as Tom Thacker of Cincinnati, Rod Thorn of West Virginia, Nate Thurmond of Bowling Green and Jimmy Rayl of Indiana.

"The only thing I can promise you is that I won't stall against this great team," Wells quipped, "but it sure beats me as to how we'll stop them."

The West team will be headed by two fine performers from the Rocky Mountain area—Big Eight scoring champion Ken Charlton of Colorado and Bill Green, the nation's third ranking individual scorer this past season from Colorado State.

"I think the key to beating a team made up of Heyman, Thorn, Harkness, Thurmond and Thacker will be defense," said Wells, who just retired as head basketball coach at Tulane.

"This game has to be rated a loss-up," Anderson said. "When you pick the 10 best seniors from each section of the country to play, you've got two evenly matched teams."

The West probably will start Charlton, Green, Lyle Harger of Houston, Gary Hill of Oklahoma City University and either Willie Brown of Texas Western or Nolan Ellison of Kansas.

The contest is sponsored by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, with proceeds going to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame at Springfield, Mass.

Decides to Go to Ark. Tech

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Bill Keedy, 17, a 3-year letterman at Newport High School, has signed a football grant-in-aid at Arkansas State College in Jonesboro. The Class AA All-State quarterback is 5-9 and weighs 163 pounds.

State Loses to Mississippi Team

STATE COLLEGE, Miss. (AP)—Arkansas State College of Jonesboro lost 12-2 Saturday in a baseball game with Mississippi State. The Maroons collected 16 hits off three Arkansas pitchers and clinched the game in the seventh inning with six runs on three singles, a double and two errors.
